

FIND SCAPEGOAT
IN BENTON CASE.Carranza Commission May Accuse Maj. Fierro.Say Col. Avila Ordered the Execution of Bauch.Declared to Have Been Slain Previous to Verdict.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
EL PASO (Tex.) March 12.—Information that evidence thus far gathered by the Carranza Commission indicates Maj. Rudolfo Fierro as the slayer of William S. Benton, a British subject, assumed importance today with the arrival of American passengers from Chihuahua with reports, not confirmed, that Fierro had been arrested, charged with the murder of two Mexican railroad men.

That the railroad men were murdered is known. Whether Fierro really has been arrested in connection with the case is only a report, but the information is regarded as probably correct by those who have been conversant with the fact that the Carranza Commission started work with information that Benton was killed by Fierro.

It is said also that the commission has gathered convincing evidence that Col. Fidel Avila, in command of the garrison at Juarez, ordered the execution of Bauch, a German-American, who was tried as a spy, but in whose case no verdict was rendered. Rebel officers at Juarez and at Chihuahua repeatedly have denied that he was killed.

In the case of Fierro, whose cruelty is a matter of notoriety, those familiar with the situation have looked for some charge unconnected with the Benton case to be brought against him as a cloak on which he could be held, or for his disappearance or apparently accidental death. While investigators have been convinced for the last two weeks that he was, and not Gen. Villa, who killed Benton, they still expect that he would live to face that particular charge. He was in Villa's office when Benton was killed, and is said to be a distant relative of the rebel chief.

The Mexican railroad men are said to have been killed in a resort at Chihuahua where Fierro appeared, it is said, intoxicated. They were members of a union and agents of the organization made the complaint to Gen. Villa.

Bauch, it is said, was not executed until two days after Villa left Juarez. Whether Villa issued orders for the execution is not known, but it is known that evidence thus far gathered indicates that he ordered the execution of the German-American.

Developments connecting Fierro with the Benton case have been lacking for since Monday, when sudden announcement was made that Fierro had been succeeded as general manager of the rebel railroad by Eusebio Calzado.

It was stated at the time that Fierro would have charge of the movement of military trains.

SPECIAL SESSION
LIKELY IN TEXAS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
AUSTIN (Tex.) March 12.—Gov. O. B. Colquhoun announced today he would confer with party leaders over the advisability of calling a special session of the Texas Legislature.

While a change in the state election laws is the subject which has aroused interest in the possibility of a special session, that body, if called together, also will have the power to consider any other measure the Governor might recommend, including protection of the Texas frontier.

TAMPIO GARRISON
READY FOR ATTACK.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
VERA CRUZ (Mex.) March 12.—A wireless dispatch today from Tampico reports that the Federals are busy entrenching on the outskirts of that city in anticipation of a rebel attack. The United States hospital ship Bolace and the cruiser Des Moines are in the Panuco River at Tampico, ready to embark refugees.

The German steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which leaves tomorrow for Tampico, will be detained there in order to embark the Germans. All the American warships will remain at Tampico pending developments of the situation. The yacht Dolphin will proceed thither from Vera Cruz as soon as the heavy northern subsides.

YAQUIS KILL AMERICAN.

But ex-Negro Cavalryman Slew Three of Them Before He Hit the Dust in Mexico.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DOUGLAS (Ariz.) March 12.—Charles Howard, negro, an American citizen, was killed recently by Yaquis on the ranch of Charles Anthony in the Yaqui River Valley, while Constitutional soldiers encamped a few hundred yards away, refused to go to his assistance, according to a special dispatch from Nogales to this city.

Howard is thought here to be a deserter from the Ninth United States Cavalry, stationed at Douglas, enlisted under the name of George or Joyce.

He was negro caretaker at the ranch, and killed three of his assailants before he himself was killed with bullets, according to the report. Looting and burning of the ranch reported recently to the State Department made no mention of the negro's death. It is said.

Rebels Grant Permit to Alamosa Company of Nogales to Export Cattle at Five Dollars a Head.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DOUGLAS (Ariz.) March 12.—Although the Constitutional government denies its own citizens and most foreigners the right to export cattle, it was officially announced today that a permit had been granted the Alamosa Cattle Company of Nogales, Ariz., to export 25,000 head of cattle within the next sixty days. The recently announced duty of $10 gold per head, was cut in half in this case. The permit has aroused much unfavorable expression of opinion here.

stubborn resistance than he would have encountered had he marched south at least eight weeks ago, say couriers who arrived from the south. While Gen. Villa has remained here, 200 miles north of the Federal garrison, attending chiefly to his affairs, the Federals at Torreon, under Gen. Refugio Velasco, are reported to have extended their outposts to Mapimi, Bermujillo and other points fifty miles outside the city. Small, unimportant skirmishes already have taken place. Late messages from Torreon said "for the last four weeks Huerta had been pouring Federal soldiers into Torreon and supplying them with ammunition sufficient not only to defend the city, but to extend a campaign westward and possibly north. An expedition has been prepared to advance on the Federal city of Durango, Capital of the State of Coahuila. If Gen. Velasco succeeds in capturing Durango or in sending a large column to Villa's rear, the rebels' march southward will be effectively checked. A movement against Durango has been started from Aguas Calientes State. The feeling prevails among the Federal soldiers that the tide of the war is gradually turning in Huerta's favor.

WILL PASS JAPS

ORIENTALS WILL CROSS AMERICAN TERRITORY.

Secretary Bryan Promises Viscount Chinda to Expedite Permits for 150 Men to Begin Trip at El Paso on Their Way to Work in the Sonora Cotton Fields.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 12.—Secretary Bryan has promised the Japanese Ambassador, Viscount Chinda, to expedite permits for the passage of about 150 Japanese through American territory from El Paso, Tex., to Calexico, on the extreme northwest corner of the Mexican State of Sonora.

These Japanese, reduced to an extremely by lack of work owing to military operations in Northern Mexico, will seek employment as cotton pickers on the west coast. The Ambassador made it plain no colonization scheme was involved.

Consular reports to the State Department today from Central Mexico gave warning of a general engagement in the neighborhood of Torreon through reports of small preliminary skirmishes. On the Gulf coast the threatened battle near Tampico has not materialized. Rear Admiral Howard reported to the Navy Department today from Mazatlan that all was quiet at that port as well as at other west coast ports of Guaymas and Topolampam.

The Benton commission still remains at El Paso awaiting results from the commission named by Gen. Carranza to develop the facts connected with the execution of the rebel chief.

The War Department is watching the outcome of the efforts of the Mexican military prisoners near El Paso to escape. It is reported that the prisoners, who are held in the hands of the rebels, are being treated with kindness and are being allowed to work on the land.

TROOPS' REMOVAL.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DOUGLAS (Ariz.) March 12.—Strenuous protest against the removal to Texas of any portion of the troops from the Arizona frontier was sent to the Secretary of War today by the Douglas Chamber of Commerce. Many individual messages also were sent to the War Department, according to local opinion, is more dangerous now than at any time in the past, and that there is more need of adequate military force.

FALSE, SAYS MAYTORENA.

Governor of Sonora Denies by Telegram Sent to Los Angeles His Implication by Oregon.

Recent dispatches stating that Jose M. Maytorena, Constitutional Governor of Sonora, has been jailed by Gen. Oregon and that Lorenzo Rosado, former Secretary of State under Maytorena, has been expelled from the country, were denied yesterday by a telegram signed by Maytorena, dated at Hermosillo yesterday afternoon, and received by Rosado here. It reads:

"The public tranquility has not been altered in this State. I authorize my Hermosillo and legal adviser to Maytorena. His departure from Sonora via Nogales, coupled with his refusal to divulge the nature of his business, friends say, gave rise to the report that he had been put out of the country by Maytorena. I am sorry to hear of this. It is a lie. On the contrary, it is stated that Rosado's business here is legal, and not official in any sense, nor his leaving Hermosillo. In support of this, an advance notice of his trip to Los Angeles was published in a Hermosillo newspaper last Sunday.

Chairman of Committee Investigating Michigan Strike Thinks Unions Should Be Recognized.

(BY NIGHT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, March 12.—Refusal of the Michigan copper miners' union to recognize the miners' companies was denounced as "un-American" by Chairman Taylor and members of the House investigating committee upon their return today from their trip to the copper strike region. Representative Taylor described James MacNaughton, vice-president and general manager of the Calumet and Hecla Copper Company, as "the boss of that great region."

The committee will send an expert in a few days to Boston to go over the books of the Calumet and Hecla company. It will hear John Mitchell next week and then will allow the companies and the strikers fifteen days to file briefs.

Both the Michigan and Colorado investigating committees expect to submit their reports to Congress in May, perhaps earlier.

About 1,000 miners are still on strike in Michigan and living miserably out on the snow, Representative Taylor said. "Their condition is critical. The labor unions of the United States, including the Western Federation of Miners, are spending $30,000 a week for the strikers."

AMERICA'S PANAMA RIGHTS ARE ADMITTED IN LONDON.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 12.—The London River Shipbuilding, the highest authority among British legal publications, concludes a 1908-word analysis of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and of American rights in the Panama Canal with these words:

"To sum up, it is reasonably arguable: (a) That the United States can support its action on the precise words of the material articles of the treaty, that its case is strengthened by reference to the preamble and context, and that its case is difficult to challenge on ground of general justice.

(b) There is no international obligation to submit the construction of its legislative act to any process of arbitration; and, (c) That any aggrieved party has an appropriate and impartial and a competent tribunal in the Supreme Court of the United States."

"I got them from Congressman Harbord of Pennsylvania," said De Knight. "He wrote Secretary Stimson, stating that they might be valuable for campaign purposes."

BOSTON, March 12.—Rear-Admiral Bowles, president of the Foreign Shipbuilding Company, denied today that he had employed Clarence W. De Knight to work for toll exemptions for American coastwise ships in the Panama Canal Act.

De Knight before the Senate Lobby Committee at Washington. "I employed Mr. De Knight in connection with the Panama Canal Act, which has to do with the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission over canal shipping," he testified.

This was the prediction of Chairman Adamson of the House Interstate Commerce Committee and Senator Owen, member of the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate to-night, during conference with President Wilson at the White House.

Both Senator Owen and Adamson told the President that none doubted the polls of the House and Senate shipping, but that they felt more confident than ever of its adoption.

TO INVESTIGATE
AN AMBASSADOR.Senate Wants the Straight of the London Address.But the English Reporters Give Varying Versions.Diplomat's Alibi Is that He Was Only Joking.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 12.—Walter Hines Page, American Ambassador to Great Britain, was made the target of inquiry today in a resolution adopted by the Senate calling upon the Secretary of State to investigate alleged public assertions by the Ambassador relative to the Monroe doctrine and the Panama Canal.

Senator Chamberlain, aroused over reports of a speech by Ambassador Page in London last night before the associated Chambers of Commerce, introduced the resolution of inquiry and his request for immediate consideration resulted in its adoption without debate. The resolution requests the Secretary of State to procure a copy for the use of the Senate of Ambassador Page's address, and to call upon the Ambassador for evidence upon which he based the alleged statement that "it added greatly to the pleasure of the people of the United States in the building of the Panama Canal to know that the British would profit most by its use."

Particular emphasis is made in the resolution for a verbatim report of that portion of the Ambassador's address, in which he is reported to have defined the Monroe doctrine as meaning merely that "the United States would prefer that no European governments would gain more land in the New World."

After the resolution had been adopted, Senators heard of dispatches from London saying the Ambassador's speech was delivered extemporaneously late in the evening, and not reported verbatim, and quoting Mr. Page as explaining that his reference to British use of the Panama Canal was in a light vein. It was taken for granted at the capital, that in response to the State Department's request, the Ambassador would furnish his recollection of just what he had said, with the desired explanation.

No attempt to oppose the resolution was made when Senator Chamberlain introduced it. The resolution being to pass such measures as a matter of course. Later in the day a similar resolution was introduced in the House by Representative Murray of Oklahoma, a Democrat, but it did not get before the body for discussion.

There was no official comment upon the speech or the action of the Senate. In an informal discussion at the White House, however, President Wilson indicated that the Monroe doctrine was as much a part of the American policy as the Panama Canal. He said that he did not express any opinion concerning the Ambassador's speech, but when asked whether he considered the Monroe doctrine obsolete he had not heard that it was "falling in any way."

The Senate resolution had not reached Secretary Bryan tonight. According to custom, if Ambassador Page does not forestall the action by voluntarily forwarding an explanation of the incident, the resolution will be called his tomorrow as soon as it is introduced. It would ask the State Department whether "a new American policy of subjecting American wealth to the selfish interest of the nations of Europe" is the fundamental reason for the demand to repeal the law now in force exempting American ships from conducting a coastwise trade from canal tolls.

It was recalled at the Capital that the Ambassador's speech was introduced in the Senate a petition of protest against reported remarks by Ambassador Page from members of the Associated Chambers of Commerce and the Robert Emmett Society of Portland, Ore. These protests, which also were forwarded to President Wilson and Secretary Bryan characterized as "un-American" remarks attributed to Ambassador Page to the effect that the United States was "English" and "English-ruled," and that the obligation of government and civilization rest with the people who speak the language of Shakespeare."

Even the British Law Review, the most authoritative legal publication in Great Britain, holds that free tolls does not violate the treaty.

In the light of the utterance by the highest legal authority in Great Britain, how inexcusable for American Representatives and Senators to repeat the treaty as it is now construed by the repealers. No American Senator who would have dared give King George such rights of interfering in American domestic affairs could ever have been re-elected.

"The present contention is that an American ship carrying cargo from one American port to another American port cannot be exempted from payment of tolls in a canal built by the United States, owned by the United States, defended by the United States, and lying wholly within the territory of the United States."

"No American Senator would ever repeat of the exemption clause in the Panama Canal law but he would be up for passage at the next session of the Chamber of Commerce. As this is a large point, it is a matter of some importance."

America would thereby receive more trade from this country. Mr. Page here made a lengthy reference to the trading between England and America, especially in cotton, about which he said: "Hope in future it would be sent here in better grading and better shape."

The Ambassador proceeded that he wished to correct an impression about the attitude of the United States government concerning British investments in the States of Central America, which he said: "The United States sometimes read that the United States was entering on a policy to discourage foreign investments. There was a policy forming in the mind of the American government which was not new, that would discourage such investments for such concessions as would carry with them control of the government of any of those states, and only that."

"It was not the business of the United States to put any hindrance on any investments anywhere in the world, provided only the investments were not made so that they took the country with them."

"The Monroe doctrine meant only that no European government should gain any more land in the New World. Mr. Page then made humorous reference to Englishmen who were complaining of our capacity, but you take our money."

"You show yourselves shrewd traders, for we get only a little English history in broken pieces for all our expenditure."

"In concluding, the Ambassador said the next free government which had its birth in the United Kingdom, the greatest fact in the whole world was the commercial union of British commerce that bound all parts of the earth together and made man known to one another and therefore become more reasonable and more peaceful."

The Times quotes Ambassador Page, after his reference to Panama and the tariff, as follows:

THE TEXAS IS READY.

Giant Superdreadnought, Leaves
 Powerful Battleship Afloat, Meets Builders for North Navy Yard.

(ST. A. S. FORTY NINE)

NEWSPAPER NEWS OF THE MARCH 12.—All ready for "fight or frolic"
 the giant superdreadnought Texas

most powerful battleship afloat, in the world, today left the yards, in her builders here, the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, for the Norfolk navy yard, distant only a few miles, there to be turned over to Rear-Admiral Usher, commander of the Norfolk station.

The vessel's officers and crew had been assembled, so that she was ready to be placed officially in commission in the hands of the navy. The civilian builders to the authorized government representative. The dreadnought was launched here almost a year ago, by Miss Claudia Lyon, daughter of Col. Cecil A. Lyon of Texas, doing the honors of the occasion with the traditional bottle of champagne.

This monster of the sea carries

As its principal fighting equipment a battery of ten fourteen-inch guns, located in the main battery, has been fitted out with guns of such large caliber, and in addition has in its main battery two six-inch guns. The fourteen-inch guns were placed on the Texas, a Japanese battleship has been equipped with similar-size guns. The six-inch guns are the largest which have yet been placed on any British dreadnought. The big guns on the Texas are mounted on the center line from stem to stern, and are so placed that they can be fired over each other.

The length of the ship is 573 feet, the beam ninety-five feet two and one-half inches, so that in passing through the Panama Canal locks she will have a clearance of one foot spare. Although her designed speed was twenty-one knots, in her trials off the Maine coast last October, she did not sink until 12:34 a.m. She has a displacement of 27,000 tons, a horse-power of 35,000, and draws a twenty-eight-foot six inches. Her armor belt is eleven inches thick. Twin screws, vertical, triple expansion engines send the steel-plated terror sliding through the seas. The contract price of the vessel for hull and machinery was $5,320,000, but with armament added the total cost was $10,000,000. The ship, a sister ship, the New York, which is rapidly approaching completion, is now in course of construction at the navy yard at New York.

Birkel Company's Fire Sale

The picture below shows a portion of our Sixth Floor, where 34 Pianos were totally destroyed by fire and 17 partially destroyed by water. Our principal losses were confined to the Fifth and Sixth Floors.

5000 Player Rolls Both 65 and 88 Note—
To go at 10c, 25c and 50c

Grasp this opportunity to stock up on good Player Music. Late, popular selections and Dance Music, as well as Classics. Metronome-Themodist Rolls are included in this Fire Sale Clearance at these extraordinary prices.

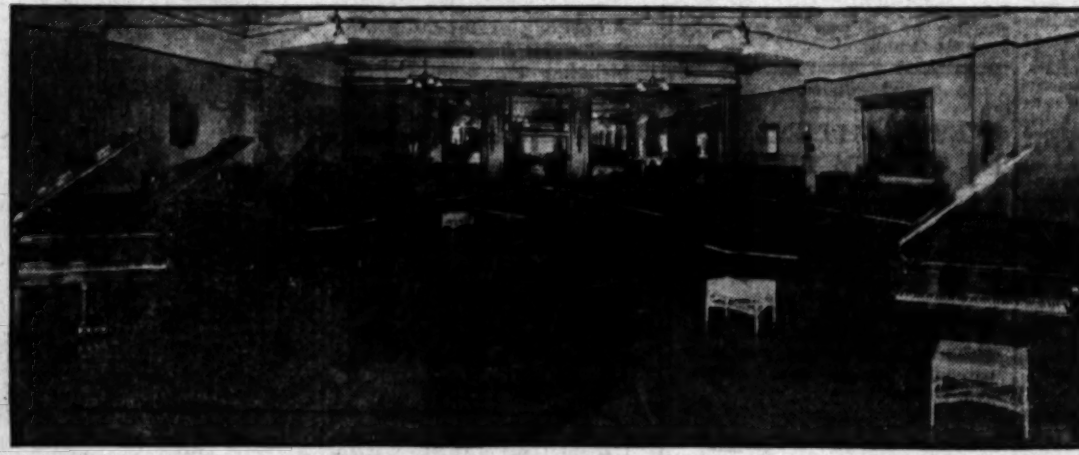

Used and Damaged Talking Machines

Various makes are included in this Fire Sale Clearance. Be sure to ask about these!

OUR total loss in the fire just a week ago was $58,185, fully covered by insurance. Six thousand dollars of this will go into the building. Every dollar of the rest—$52,185—will go to hundreds of fortunate Buyers in the shape of EXTREME REDUCTIONS. Every Instrument in our stock without a single exception, goes into this sale.

Our building must soon be turned over to the contractors for replastering and redecorating. To lessen the great inconvenience of this, we must clear our floors and prevent further damage to our stock while repairs are in progress. After we have sold one-half or one-third of our stock, we can move instruments from floor to floor to avoid the plasterers.

But with every available inch of floor space now covered with Pianos and Players, it is inadvisable to begin the repairs until we have sold hundreds of Instruments.

Showing a portion of our Second Floor—Pianos and Players unharmed by fire or water.

VANDALISM OF SUPRAGETTES MAY CLOSE LONDON.

Reginald McKenna Urged Not to Release May Richardson Who Got Six Months' Imprisonment for Damaging the "Rokeby Venus," Masterpiece by Velasquez.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P. LONDON, March 12.—The vandalism of the militant suffragettes caused the closing today of a great many public buildings in addition to those which locked British doors yesterday. The Victoria and Albert Museum, the Crypt and galleries of St. Paul's Cathedral, the Royal Stables at Buckingham Palace, and the Charter House were among those affected.

Popular resentment in connection with suffragette outrages was reflected again today in Parliament. A number of questioners urged Reginald McKenna, the Home Secretary, not to release such a dangerous character as May Richardson, who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for damaging the Rokeby "Venus."

Premier Asquith announced that he was making an inquiry into the question of the best way of protecting the nation's art treasures.

Miss Richardson has been on a "hunger strike" since her arrest. In replying to the charge today, she said that her act was premeditated and she pleaded guilty.

MISS RICHARDSON'S EXCUSE. Addressing the court, Miss Richardson said: "I am an art student, but I care more for justice than for art. I firmly believe that when the nation has shut its eyes to justice and has allowed women, who are fighting for justice, to be maltreated and tortured, such an action as mine should be understandable."

"The slow and premeditated murder of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst is the ultimatum which has made necessary the recent acts of her followers. The nation seems to be dead or asleep, for we women have knocked violently at the doors of ministers, bishops and archbishops and even of the King himself."

"I know that you will sentence me. I can stand only a few months' torture, but my fate makes little difference. I am really a grateful and happy woman, because I have been able to live in a century in which Mrs. Pankhurst lived, and because in a slight measure I have tried to carry out what I believe in."

COLLOQUY WITH COURT.

BIASED REPORT FOR CALUMET.

CHAIRMAN IGNORES CONGRESS IN GIVING IT OUT.

House Committee Which Investigated Conditions in the Michigan Copper Region Tell Reporters They Intend to Prepare Warm Document for the Mine Owners.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The House committee investigating conditions in the Michigan copper strike area arrived here today and members explained that their report would denounce the mine owners for refusing to allow their men to return to work without renouncing their unions.

Chairman Taylor condemned the use of armed men from outside the State at the instance of the mine owners and pictured a miserable condition of men on strike. He announced that the committee would obtain further evidence later from the books of the Calumet and Hecla company at Boston, give a hearing to John Mitchell, the union labor leader, and probably present a report to the House by May 1.

"The companies," said Chairman Taylor, "have the right not to recognize the union, and the men have the right to belong to a union. It is an un-American proposition to deny a man the right to belong to some organization. The Western Federation of Miners is distinctly a metalliferous organization and these strikers could belong to no other such organization and a denial of their right to its membership means denial of their right to belong to any union. The Citizens' Alliance, the organization of citizens, is working along this line of driving the Western Federation of Miners off the map."

The Waddell-Mahon corporation brought a large number of outsiders into the strike territory. They furnished thugs, as did the Asher Agency. These people shipped men there with instructions that if there was no excitement to create it. These fellows have created trouble. They have no responsibility and have made deputy sheriffs and allowed to carry guns.

"The majority of the investigating committee will agree in recommending to Congress a Federal law to prohibit corporations from shipping armed men from one State to another. This will be on the ground they are trouble makers. The committee probably will make some other recommendations concerning working conditions of large enterprises like the Calumet and Hecla corporation, which on an investment of $1,200,000 has in the last fifty years paid $115,000,000 in dividends and reinvested $75,000,000 more out of proceeds."

Water Drainage—News Briefs.
(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
POMONA, March 12.—Willis Jones, hydraulic engineer of this city and L. T. Gillette of Claremont have been elected chairman and secretary, respectively, of the committee selected by the representatives of the different towns and business organizations of this locality to form a great storm water district to protect Pomona Valley from future losses by floods. Jones is well qualified to assist in the present and future hydrographic work being done by the Pomona and thorough study water conditions in this locality. He has proposed to embody in the store district the land lying from the mountains south of the boundary line of the "Chino rancho" the east and west limits are irregular. The Mountain avenue the general line for the eastern boundary and with the western line starting east of Thomson Creek, running to San Antonio to Orange Grove avenue and on to Hamilton avenue.

The area possible here that the flood waters would be carried off to a main ditch following the old San Antonio wash and continuing in a line as nearly straight as possible. The matter of the character of the ditch

The production of the play, "Barbara Frietchie," upon which a cast of the best local amateurs has been rehearsing for weeks, was largely attended at the Fraternal Aid Operahouse this evening, the audience loudly applauded the stirring closing scenes. Miss Anna Locker Scott and Frank Balfour appeared in the leading roles to excellent advantage, and were ably assisted by Miss Elma Smith, Lucile Findlay, Katherine

Recently-Created Imperial Valley City Is to Have High-Class Hostelry—Short News Stories.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
IMPERIAL, March 12.—There is to be built in the near future what will probably be the finest hotel in the valley at Niland. It will be thoroughly modern in every respect and will cost about $50,000 when completed. Many people would come the valley but for the long waits at the junction with no hotel accommodations whatever. This new hotel will be a constant reminder that stands at the gateway of the garden of California.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Lee Little, who owns a 5000-acre ranch in the south end of the valley will plant the entire acreage in alfalfa and grain this year, and he contemplates planting 400 acres more in the same locality before the season closes. Last year this ranch yielded about 40,000 sacks of grain, including barley and wheat. This year he expects to increase the yield materially. M

Peter Barnes is materially increasing his cotton acreage in the southern end of the valley. Last year he planted 6000 acres to cotton, of a high grade. This year he will add to the acreage 4000 acres more, making a total of 10,000 acres. He plans to plant 10,000 acres of high grade cotton this year. The prediction now, made on the aggregate cotton acreage to be planted in the valley, is that the value of the next year's crop will be close to $6,000,000.

Land owners along Little Creek have been spending a good deal of time and money in conserving the soil from storm waters by diverting them into gravel beds along the course of the stream.

About May 1 the erection of three new cotton gins will begin in Calais. Each one of them will have a capacity of about 50,000 bales per day. The cost about $50,000. These gins are in addition to a new cotton-oll mill which is to be erected in that town soon, which is to cost $50,000. With the completion of these three gins Calais will have a ginning capacity of about 150,000 bales per day.

Calais is to have another modern, commodious theater, to be built by Sheriff Meadows. It will be modeled after the Tulane Theater in New Orleans. It is proposed to make this the largest and best theater in the State.

Rev. Francis Burlebach of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Brawley is negotiating through Bishop Conaty of Los Angeles, arrangements for building a handsome Catholic church at each of the two towns in the north end of the valley, Niland and Calipatria.

Reveals Story.

A. (retired), and Nathan Straus, the philanthropist, were guests of honor and were given an ovation, but did not speak.

"Palos Verdes was the greatest buy," said Schrader, "on the greatest piece of land, on the greatest ocean, in the greatest State, adjoining the greatest city, with the greatest climate in the world."

Continuing, Schrader said: "Palos Verdes brought $1,000,000 new money to us and $2,000,000 additional will come for development, with $10,000,000 more for improvements. An international yachting harbor will be established in our midst, while fifty miles of new boulevard will be created and the finest of residential palaces will arise on a once barren tract, machine wealth, refinement, culture and beauty."

"Also, remember, Palos Verdes is now owned by the greatest workingmen in America, all self-starters, with electric-lighted foresight; men who do things. We will never again have the bothers of the past."

An enthralling story of human thoughts and efforts was told by Schrader regarding the deal. In fact, Schrader made his story a story of the future.

"The scheme," said Schrader, "originated several years ago when I was dreaming of how to build a beautiful seaside city in Santa Monica Canyon and mountains. I did not secure the Santa Monica property, yet the dream continued, and will be fulfilled on the Palos Verdes."

"We secured a contract to purchase 2400 acres, being the entire Palos Verdes. A syndicate was formed, $500,000 raised to buy the property, a year and a quarter was lost in legal entanglements, and finally a court decree was secured. Not for the shore-line we had purchased. Oh, no; we had to buy the entire property."

"$500,000 cash and $1,000,000 notes and mortgage."

"Now let me pay a tribute to the biggest man in Los Angeles; a stand-patter who makes Joe Cannon look like a shadow. One of the opposing attorneys said: 'Well, you have sixty days on this option, what are you going to do about it?' Thirty days was passed. Only this one stand-patter still standing. For this was 1911 and our syndicate could not find $500,000 available cash in Los Angeles."

"I went to San Francisco, found a real millionaire with the cash. I convinced him and we boarded a train, but before we reached the property some good friend had reached him with a hammer. The stand-patter will stand, for he is a man who knows he is right, stands."

THE INSPIRATION.

"Friday, the 13th, 1913, with only seventeen days left to pay $500,000, I picked up The Times at breakfast and saw in bold, black headlines—'Billion Dollar Melon, But the Union Pacific Can Not Cut It.' I said to myself: 'This is the money I need. I need for New York, paying in Los Angeles long enough to count the money.'"

"I landed in Judge Lovett's office just as he was leaving for the west. The proposition interested him. He agreed to meet me on the Palos Verdes October 13. This left but six days and I wanted to sell it the best country we are going to make in the best country. In alluding to Booker T. Washington by his side he said that it was a land where a man who was once a slave to be sold as so much dry goods, was now one of the strong men of the country."

"Booker T. Washington in an address said that the Y.M.C.A. was helping the negro to help himself and find himself. He lectured to a new organization in its special work. Cavalry Troop D is also to be inspected tonight at the armory, by Lieut. Albert B. Dockery, U.S.A."

Double incentive.

GARDENERS ENTER FOR

GOLD AND FINE ROSES.

FROM almost every part of Los Angeles and from many Southern California towns and rural communities rose growers have sent in entry blanks for The Times amateur rose garden contest which will culminate in May of next year. Then, when hundreds of thousands of roses are here from every State in the Union as well as from foreign countries, the rose gardens in all the Southland will be filled with roses of exquisite form and color, eloquently telling their story of the beneficent southern soil and sunshine.

Thousands of people are preparing to participate in the general scheme of floral adornment that will make the land an endless garden of beauty in exposition year. More roses have been planted this year than in three or four years. The Times has distributed thousands of collections of high-grade bushes and is continuing the distribution to its subscribers. Each collection consists of six choice, two-year-old sturdy plants of the best varieties. They are a bloom this spring and in full blossoming perfection next spring. They are given absolutely free to subscribers.

From the rose plants given away by The Times alone there should be 1,000,000 magnificent blossoms in 1915. From the rose gardens of the city and vicinity, great and small, from the numerous climbers that festoon porches and pergolas and the plants that the nurserymen have sold in unprecedented quantity will be produced other millions of blossoms. The aggregate result of the efforts of all the people who are helping to make the great 1915 floral and plant show successful will be a wealth of splendor.

LIBEL CHARGE DISMISSED.

Witness Detained in England So Proceedings Are Wiped Out of the Court Records.

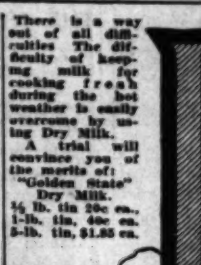

The criminal libel charge against Wade Chance, socially prominent in London, New York and San Francisco, and former president of the English Land Company, $3,000,000 corporation, was yesterday dismissed by Justice Chambers, because of the failure of principal witnesses to appear.

J. M. Ralston, W.S., cousin of Lord Balfour, and of Arey Van Bokkelen, one of the original promoters of the big foreign syndicate, are the missing witnesses, both detained in England, according to an affidavit submitted.

The charge against Chance grew out of alleged remarks made to Balfour at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Van Bokkelen was the complaining witness.

When the doctors diagnose a disease, they say: "It is a disease of the moon on account of the moon." Good morning, did you know that the moon is a disease of the moon on account of the moon?

Our anxiety as to the whereabouts of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst has been relieved. She is in jail again.

"Hail, oh, hail," cry the local ball players to "Holy Hi" Johnson. How does he feel when he is reigning?

How does President Wilson stand anywhere with his Mexican policy? Does nothing but watch and wait?

What has become of the old-fashioned opera-goer who thought the only way to the world was to go to the opera?

The nights are approaching when we will be expected to supply the water under the refrigerator before going to bed.

The Virginia House of Delegates has rejected the woman-suffrage bill, but the reform moves slowly in the Old Dominion.

King George smoked cigarettes during his recent performance of an amateur "music."

The arbitration treaty with Persia will be renewed. Which will stimulate the study of geography to find out where Persia is.

A Venice clergyman claims that he is capable of preaching a sermon. He is at liberty to make your own view of that statement.

The appearance of women in high heels, colored wigs, and other accessories, is a sign of the degeneration of the human race.

Will the German soldiers accompany their army to the proposed South American trip? And will they be paid a percentage of the gate receipts?

Prof. Doty, the civil service examiner, has been appointed to examine the cases of bachelors of medicine who are treated. So far, by the way, the results are not encouraging.

If Congress were Parliament, O. W. Goethals would be made the member of a party of about a half-million. The English are capable of appreciation.

Prince Henry has started on his South American trip. He will find that Roosevelt cleaned up all of the money he has charged $3000 for a letter to Janeiro.

It would be just like Postmaster General to put the express companies to business altogether. What are the rates as between advocates of freedom?

Gene Chaffin, twice prohibition candidate for President, has probably come to terms to see to it that Jack London get the honor. Gene is the new candidate.

The way in which these Texas boys went across the line to get Vergil reveals the strenuous days when the little Pike was at the head of the movement of the plains.

The flood of telegrams from Los Angeles against the repeal of the present law on Panama tolls should be sent to the Panama at the White House. Congress has nothing to do with it.

A bad time for the Murphy-Cuba, and Charles F. Drew, who is a window of the National Democratic and St. Patrick's Day but a few days.

The peach and plum trees are in bloom and the apricots are as big as your little finger in sunny Southern California. The orchards are a wonderful color, shining and shimmering in the air.

Joseph C. Mackin, the man who was free from jail in prison, is dead at an advanced age. For a man who was a liver, he lived a long time.

The Angel City has her seal. Where summer sea and winter sun. And all the southern side of the bay. And sitting there she makes her home. That she is queen of all the islands. And that her commerce grows in the bay.

Without a rival near the shore she rules her inland realm alone. And reaches outward to the sea. But her sea fully understood. Before she makes her home. How great her harbor grows in the bay.

Cupid Wins. LOVE CONQUERS TIME OBSTACLE.

PROPOSED, ACCEPTED, MARRIED ALL IN AN EVENING.

Young Couple Lose No Time in Arousing License Clerk, Awakening Justice and Having Knot Tied. Will Probably Make Their Home in Louisville.

Love knows no time nor place. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Woodcock will assure their friends that this is a statement of the truth. They called Clerk Sparks down to the marriage license bureau at 2:10 o'clock last night in order to secure the necessary license to wed and then hurried around to the home of Justice Sumner and were made man and wife.

It was a romance of the effervescent character. At 8 o'clock yesterday evening Woodcock proposed and was accepted. It was then a hurry to arrange the necessary details. This was not the first proposal. Shortly after the young people met, four years ago, the present groom asked Miss Vera Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Noble of No. 250 East Third street, to become his wife.

Being only 18 years of age at the time, her parents considered the match inopportune and Woodcock, then 22 years old, returned to his home, Louisville, Ky., a disconsolate wooer. The flame of love then ignited was never put out and several weeks ago Woodcock announced his intention of returning here. He arrived on Saturday and his first visit was to the home of his old sweetheart. The wedding was announced for some time in June, but when the hours of separation were measured, they proved too many for good intentions and the outcome was the hasty affair of last night.

Mrs. Woodcock is a graduate of Whittier College, she having been raised at that place where her parents are pioneers. Woodcock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Woodcock and is in the publishing business in Louisville. After a few weeks in Southern California, the newlyweds will proceed to the "Blue Grass" State to secure the sanction of their marriage from the parents of the groom. They will probably make their future home in Louisville.

SUMPTUOUS PRESENTATION OF WAGNER'S "PARSIFAL."

Fast Audience Hears the Message of the Holy Grail Through Master Composer's Last Work—Exquisite Musical and Scenic Interpretation—Chapman's "Louise" with Mary Garden and Large Cast, Tonight.

BY HECTOR ALLIOT.

TRADITIONAL Bayreuth invaded the Auditorium yesterday and brought in its trail a vast audience, eager to hear a production of "Parsifal" as close to the original as will be given in many years.

By 4 in the afternoon, a great number of people began to arrive, while a long line was waiting to secure tickets. At 4:30 Campanini appeared and was received with muted applause, for the spirit of Bayreuth was respected even in the omission of plaudits as Wagner himself demanded years ago, as a respect due to the theme of his great work.

Parsifal stands alone in the operatic repertoire. His scenic effects are different from any other, the libretto prepared laboriously by Wagner is his own compilation, in one opera, of the legends of the Arthurian cycle, the Knights of the Round Table, Perceval Le Gallois, the ancient Breton story of St. Joseph of Arimathea, blended together into one mystic, musical drama.

WAGNER'S IDEAL PERCEVAL. The unknown authors of the Arthurian legends had omitted to treat of Parsifal's early youth, before his acceptance among the Knights of the Grail. Wagner, with masterly skill, brought forth the child of nature, without sin, ignorant of all wrong, with the spark of redemption of humankind in his soul.

To complete the picture, to create a greater contrast and a more telling effect, Wagner transported Merlin bodily into his drama as Klingsor. Since temptation has been the inheritance of woman from Eve to her twentieth century sister, the type had to be introduced in Parsifal. It appears in two phases of great ingenuity. Kundry, the wild child of the woods, the friend of the Knights, a primitive being, half savage and half a druid. Under the magic spell of Klingsor she becomes a siren, surrounded by a score of beautiful fairies ready to tempt Knights and mere men at the command of the evil necromancer.

Parsifal inspired from on high, new Ulysses of medieval days of chivalry, conquers his own passion, sets aside mortal temptation, to fulfill his holy mission of restoring the sacred spear to King Amfortas, bringing him back, through its touch, to health and reopening the asylum of the Knights of the Grail, reuniting the scattered host and once again uncovering the Holy Cup, in the communion of the Knights assembled at Montsalvat.

may be, it remains that "Parsifal" as given last evening is the closest interpretation that one could desire outside of Bayreuth. Four artists appearing in the principal roles: Minnie Saltzman-Stevens, Clarence Whitehill, Allen, Hinckley, and Otto Marak

SYMPHONY'S NEXT DATE.

The next concert and public rehearsal of the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra will be given at the Auditorium Friday afternoon, March 20, and Saturday evening, March 21. This announcement is made for the benefit of the thousands of readers of The Times, who yesterday morning saw in its columns an announcement conveying the wrong information as to the date.

The offices of the Symphony Association were besieged all day by patrons of the Symphony, who read the notice and desired further information concerning it, consequently The Times is making this public announcement of its error.

An exceptional programme is to be offered for these coming concerts with the famous Tchaikovsky Sixth Symphony, the "Pathétique" to be played for the first time here this season. Under the direction of Adolf Tandler this number promises to be as appealing as have the many splendid symphonies already played. A cello concerto by Axel Simonson is another feature of the programme for next week. Mr. Simonson is one of the most distinguished of the young Danish musicians and in making his first solo appearance with the Symphony he will receive much attention. He will play the De Swert concerto for violinello, never played before in the West and his magnificent virtuosity will find this a grateful vehicle for his appearance.

The opening number will be Beethoven's Overture No. 2, Leonore, which, according to Mr. Tandler, is one of the greatest overtures ever written.

have been in the Bayreuth cast of "Parsifal." The scenic effects are copied from the originals, and so are the beautiful costumes.

UNDER ILLUMINATED DOME. Clarence Whitehill, as Amfortas, was most impressive. His pale face, intensified by his knightly robes of white brocade, was a picture of subdued suffering. Under the illuminated dome of the Montsalvat asylum, his gaunt figure rising majestically from pain to uncover the Holy Grail before the kneeling, chanting knights was a picture unequalled on the operatic stage for impressive sublimity.

It was received with silent and admiring respect by the vast audience, forming a scene difficult to forget. Gurnemann, the faithful servant of the princely knight, was also interpreted with impressive dignity by Allen Hinckley.

Klingsor the magician, master of the enchanted castle and garden, was Hector Dupre, whose magnificent voice and able histrionic talent added to the delineation of the evil spirit created by medieval imagination.

Forty Passengers Refuse to Pay Fare.

Crowded Condition on Pacific Electric Short Line Pasadena Cars Causes Near Riot—Train Is Side-tracked at El Molino and After Considerable Delay the "Strikers" Decided to Pay Under Protest.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

PASADENA, March 13.—With the declaration, "No seats, no fare," about forty passengers on a Pacific Electric Railway short line train bound for Pasadena early yesterday evening refused to surrender their tickets or the cash equivalent to the conductor. There were several women among the protesters. The same thing has already been done on other lines and the railway company is putting up signs in the cars asking the public to have patience until it can overcome the trouble caused by the recent storm. The announcement was made by Paul Shoup, president of the company, last night, that it will be some time yet before the damage, which is declared to be more than all that done by all of the storms South of California has ever experienced before, can be repaired, but that the company is accomplishing it as quickly as possible.

The alteration last evening took place near the Wild Animal Farm, and the reply of the conductor was that the passengers concerned could either pay their fare or get off the car, whichever they liked.

"Put us off, then," they challenged. After a few minutes' consideration the conductor held a conference over the telephone and the car was finally side-tracked on the El Molino local line. The commuters were told that they would stay there as long as they chose to remain aboard the car, unless they all decided to pay their fares. They replied that they would remain there, then, but after about a quarter of an hour of standing in a crowded car they became tired, and the conductor decided to pay up "under protest," which they did. The car was then switched back on the track and the journey completed.

Several of the passengers who made the trouble declared last night that they intended to do the same thing again tonight, and to keep it up until the service is improved.

SHOW MAKES A HIT.
The Ninth Annual Elks' Big Show, which opened a two nights' engagement at Chase's Pasadena Theater last night, put all other similar shows that have been given in the city in the shade. It was the real thing. The house was filled and the audience actors got lots of applause for their acts, on which they had worked hard and long in order that they might have a polish that would not rub off.

In their show this year the Elks got far from the minstrel show that they have always had in the city. There were but two negro comedians in the whole cast of characters.

The first and perhaps the most enjoyable half of the bill was the cruise of the S. S. Cypriote on her initial voyage from Los Angeles to the Annapolis Country Club on the water of the Arroyo Seco. Harlan W. Hall wrote most of the lines and they were replete with local quips at the expense of different good citizens of Pasadena. The cast was as follows:

Capt. Junka, E. F. Kohler; Lord Helms, Grant Gilmore; stowaways, Norman Jones and Thomas D. Nestor; castaways, Harry G. Annan and Arthur K. Wyatt; boatwain, L. E. Sage; coxswain, H. C. Copeland; passengers, sailors, etc.

The opening chorus was a potpourri of popular songs by the company. Jones and Nestor, who followed with their song, "Observations," proved that they are a little keener-eyed fellows than perhaps they have been given credit for. They provided as many, if not more, laughs than anyone else in the show and made good ten

Giant Ship Is Launched.

Thousands Cheer as Vessel Glides Into Sea.

Young Girl Smashes Champagne on Steel Bow.

Mayor Wheaton Criticizes the Library Board.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

LONG BEACH, March 12.—John Craig, veteran shipbuilder, standing on the deck of a near-by vessel, at 9:34 o'clock this morning raised and lowered his arm, two axes swung, and four "riggers" were released, and amid the cheers of thousands the steel steamship Alvarado glided off the ways at the Craig shipbuilding plant. It was a perfect launching, and the vessel quickly righted herself and swung majestically to the middle of channel No. 2.

Just before the Alvarado dipped into the waters of the harbor, Miss Eleanor Hatch, thirteen-year-old daughter of J. E. Hatch, banker, released the rope of ribbons, allowing the bottle of champagne to break against the bow. As the effervescent liquor ran down the steel side the girl cried "I christen thee Alvarado."

The vessel is 224 feet long, has a forty-foot beam, and a molded draft of sixteen feet, and cost to build $125,000. It has quadruple-expansion engines, developing 1000 horse power, and has a lumber-carrying capacity of 1,400,000 feet. It was built for the Long Beach Steamship Company, and will enter into the coastwise trade in three weeks. The local shipyard has now turned out $1,950,000 worth of vessels.

NOT AGREED.
After a long and heated discussion over the Panama tolls question the Chamber of Commerce today tabled the project of protesting against the stand of President Wilson, which would mean such a hardship for Coast shipping.

It. H. Young, Progressive leader of the city, who has been instrumental in the defeat of the patriotic attempt to sanction the exemption of American vessels. Young is a relative of Lieut.-Gov. Whelan, is said to be a candidate for Assemblyman here.

F. S. Craig brought the matter before the directors. He stated that if all ships were brought on an equal footing in paying Panama Canal tolls, it would greatly affect Long Beach and her harbor. He brought out other points. The United States built the canal and should have the benefit of it. But Young moved that the proposition be laid on the table, and it was tabled. J. F. Craig, of the shipbuilding company, said that the stand of Wilson would mean a difference of $150 per ton on freight to and from this harbor to the Atlantic Coast.

MAYOR DEFiant.
Mayor Wheaton, as president of the Library Board, this afternoon wrote a letter to President Wilson, brining of the City Council, stating that he thought the method of procedure taken by the Council in the investigation of the City Librarian's resignation was wrong, and that the Library Board would not meet with the City Council until Miss Ellis was present. This the members of the Council take as a virtual refusal to meet with them.

Accordingly, the members of the Council met in special session tonight in the office of Councilman Callahan, and formulated a report on the library situation, which will be read at the meeting tomorrow night. It is understood that the report will censure the Library Board, and that the board will be requested to reconsider its action in accepting Miss Ellis's resignation, and invite the Librarian to reconsider her resignation.

Adolf & Hanser, owners of the Oakford Drug Store property on Third street and Pine avenue, are drawing plans for the erection of a five-story modern building, the ground floor of which will be occupied by the new Marine Commercial and Savings Bank. At a meeting of the men who have formed the bank today, E. J. Whitman was selected as president of the new institution. C. B. McHugh will be one of the vice-presidents, and E. H. Smith will be cashier. Others selected as directors are: Irving H. Hallman, Los Angeles; George L. Hooten, Los Angeles; J. W. Most, A. Dixon, W. W. Quinn, J. R. McAllister, Bert H. Paul, M. F. McNeil, R. M. Moore, and G. E. McHugh. The capital stock, $125,000, has been subscribed.

Declared by State Secretary J. E. Sprunger to be the most representative assemblage which ever attended a State meeting of the Y.M.C.A., a host of delegates and visitors gathered today for the thirty-third annual convention of Young Men's Christian associations. The programme today was full of interest for the delegates. Dr. John Brown, Jr., of New York, member of the International committee in charge of health and recreation, spoke. "Uncle" Robert Wideness, the first national secretary, was among the first to arrive. T. J. Willis, an ecologist from Canada, took much interest in the proceedings.

CONVENTION POSTPONED.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
FRESNO, March 12.—The convention of the California Church Federation, which was to have been held in Fresno, beginning today, has been indefinitely postponed, because of the Lenten season, making it impossible for many ministers to be present. There will be no meeting until after Easter, and if a convention is held, the original date of the convention was February 24, but it did not materialize then, because of storm conditions.

Organize City Band.

Redlands Hires a Musician and Tells Him to Get Ready for Summer Concerts.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

REDLANDS, March 12.—This city is to have a municipal band under the direction of Atholbert Hall, who has been engaged to get the band together. The band expects to make its first public appearance the first Sunday in April, when a sacred concert will be given in the afternoon in Library Park.

Movies an Issue.

Moving picture matters are of paramount interest in this city, and as the city election approaches the matter of opening the picture houses on Sunday is being thoroughly discussed and a strenuous effort is being made on the part of those who are opposed to Sunday picture shows to get their friends and followers to vote against it.

The matter was brought forward by the opening of a local house and the showing of pictures without actual charge of silver, collection, however, being taken. This continued for some weeks, the only action taken being the appointment of a censor board whose duty it was to pass upon the pictures shown at the Sunday opening. The matter, however, came up before the city fathers, and an attempt was made to have them give a ruling in the matter. They decided to put the matter to a vote of the people, and in the meantime forbade the opening of the house. It is likely that the vote will be a close one though those who are opposed to the Sunday opening are fairly sure that they will win the day. Some of the local pastors are taking the side of the Sunday opening. The Rev. Ralph Smith, who was a member of the board of censors, has gone on record as not being opposed to it. Dr. J. N. Field, president of the University of Redlands, announced Unusual Vigor.

Porterville, March 12.—Orange trees are in full blossom at what is said to be the earliest date in the history of the foothills citrus belt. The trees are loaded with bloom and there is every indication that the setting of fruit will be as heavy this year as last. The warmth of the winter together with the copious rains has added in a wonderful degree to the vigor of the trees and now fruit wood is already of astonishing size and extent. With normal conditions the crop this fall will be not only extremely early, but extremely large.

Outdoor Schools.

TULARE, March 12.—School officials of Tulare have approved the plans for the construction of two outdoor schoolrooms, which are to be added to the equipment of the West Side grammar school. Buildings will be constructed on the lines which have been successful in Southern California. The work of building the rooms will be done by the students of the manual training class.

GREAT CONSERVATION PLAN IS PROPOSED.

HANFORD, March 12.—Important matters of irrigation were taken up for discussion today at the meeting called here for the purpose of selecting a representative from this district as a member of the committee which will have charge of the plans for securing legislation necessary to carry into execution one of the largest plans for water control and conservation ever proposed in this section of the State.

Seven districts using water of Kings River desire to unite into one extensive district which shall be known as the Kings River water control and conservation district, and it is to provide legislation other than that contemplated by the Wright irrigation law that this legislative committee is being formed by one representative from each of the seven districts.

The plan contemplated is to build reservoirs just below the snow lines at the source of Kings River and its tributaries, conserving the waters which are now flood waters. An important feature of the scheme is that it will greatly lessen the amount of water which flows into the Tulare Lake basin and assist in the permanent reclamation of the lake basin lands for production.

Charles King was selected to represent this district on the legislative committee.

MARY GARDEN WILL SING TONIGHT, SHE DECLARES.

Prima Donna Hopes to Be in Splendid Shape but Will Do Her Best Anyway—Would Not Disappoint Los Angeles for Anything—Oliver Morosco Outlines Plans for Near Future—Harrison Hunter to Wed.

BY GARDNER BRADFORD.

UNLESS something unforeseen happens in the meantime, Mary Garden will sing tonight, according to the rumor of illness was apparently confirmed when it became known that she had had to cancel the Shrine patrol dinner, which had been arranged in her honor at the Alexandria, and it leaked out that she was under the care of physicians directly after the Tuesday night performance.

I met Carolina White, prettiest of all grand opera singers in the Alex lobby tonight, and she said to me, in direct touch with Miss Garden and her sister, and made arrangements to get word from them direct just before going to press.

And the word came: "Miss Garden will sing. She hopes to be in splendid shape, but if not, she is certain that Los Angeles will appreciate the situation. There is no place in the world she would hate to disappoint as much as Los Angeles, so she will be on hand and do her best under any circumstances."

I had a dandy little talk with Mary Garden's sister, and she said that the illness was not serious, and that she was coming West after that severe attack of grippe in the East, but she thought that once she reached the sunshine she would be all right.

"But you see she wasn't, and after all, it naturally should take more than a few days to recover from the shock of jumping out of the snow into the heat."

"Everything else was cancelled so that she could rest up, but Los Angeles, which Mary loves better than any city in the country outside of her home town, she simply would not disappoint if she could help it, and even Tuesday night, it was against the advice of the physicians that she made her appearance."

"Other than this weakness left by the grippe, she is all right, and yesterday simply rested, cancelling the Shrine patrol dinner which had been prepared in her honor for last night, in order to doubly insure her appearance tonight in 'Louise.'"

And if Mary Garden was disappointed, maybe the patrol wasn't also. So, too, was Herr Reichl of the Alexandria, who had prepared a spread which was to make him famous all over the country.

And while on the grand opera, walloping round, as it were, in an unaccompanied ocean, let me remark that the property man of the company thinks Los Angeles quite a place, too.

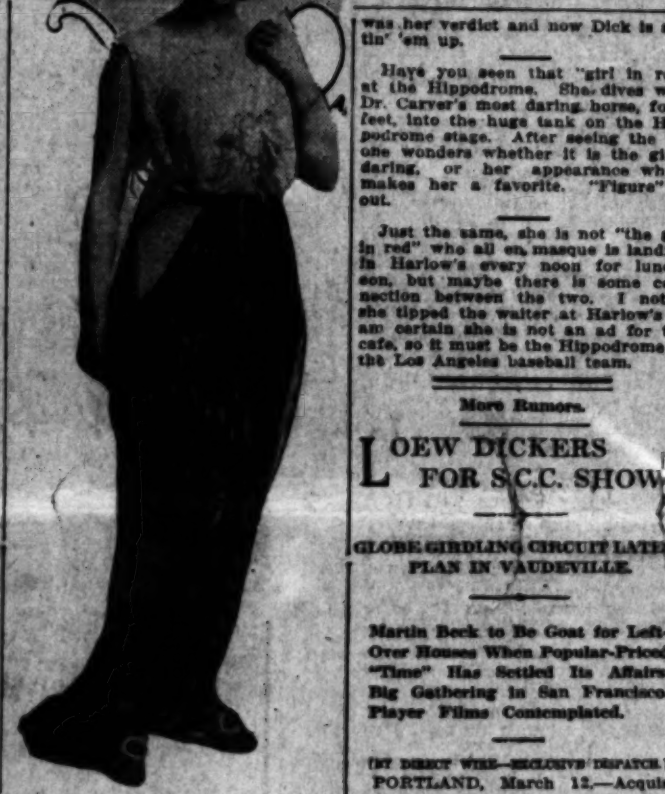

It seems that he and friend wife met here for the first time in many months, and had a fifteen-minute honeymoon in a taxi. Afterwards madame, or maybe it's monsieur, recalled that in the ecstasies of the getting-together she had overlooked her purse.

To shorten a long story, they located the taxi, found that he had taken it over to the hotel and left it for them, went there and found everything intact. They declare it couldn't happen anywhere else in the world.

Why do so many women, who really ought to be charitable, pick flaws in the things we men say in kindly spirit about their clothes? I refer directly this time to what I said about Selma Paley's gown.

One in particular I described as being a sort of metal brocade skirt and a fancy waist. In reply, I got twelve letters and two postal cards, all to the effect that when I say fancy waist I am dead wrong, as that suggests wrinkles and winter underwear and all that sort of thing.

All right, martins. Next time I'll say impressionistic, or satirical or Selma Paley.

I, but as he is to be Morosco's new secretary, I expect we'll get acquainted.

Relative to collecting a little bit, I got a letter from Jack Laiz, author of "Help Wanted," containing figures to prove it is a big success in New York.

"You see," writes Jack, "opening night in New York is almost like a professional matinee. Managers, idle chorus people, stage hands, etc., make up the audience. They are a regular death watch and sit on their hands so as not to so far forget themselves as to applaud. 'Help Wanted' became a capacity success directly after the ticket buying public had a chance to get at the seats hogged the first night by the dead heads."

They presented Reginald De Koven's "Robin Hood" in the Greek Theatre at Berkeley last night, with Bessie Abbott in the principal role. It is the first time that an American composer has been so honored, and reports by wire state that the attraction was a big success. Of course, you know it is coming to the Mason next week.

If you want to see what I call a real classy girl, go to the Orpheum March 17 so that everyone entering will treat on a bit of the cold and wonder if there will be any Bushnell to help carry out the illusion.

Clara is going to pull a funny stunt. He has a box of real Irish dirt which he is going to stick in the doorway of his picture house on March 17 so that everyone entering will treat on a bit of the cold and wonder if there will be any Bushnell to help carry out the illusion.

Remember what I said the other day about all those vaudeville magicians, too, now that they are going to pull that sensational duel between Lincoln Beachy and Barney Oldfield Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Knowing that all the theater folks have matinees these two days, all show people are invited to attend free of charge. I have slipped in this bit of free advertising just to tell these people that they are invited anyway and can get tickets from Dick Ferris. Fred Mace has some for the photoplayers.

Marquis Ellis slipped another capsize into vaudeville this week. It will be called "The Village Four" and sing the old songs. These singers go on tour Monday.

I understand that Florence Stone has turned down an offer to play vaudeville in Fresno. "Me for home"

GOOFS WIN IN WALKING DUEL.

Twenty-five Passes Issued in Venice Game.

Eleven Innings Wasted on Empty Seats.

Seaside Fans Fail to Rally 'Round Turnstile.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

VENICE, March 12.—The Tigers and the Chicago Goofs yesterday wasted eleven innings of perfectly good baseball on the ocean air and many vacant seats.

The Goofs proved their worth by winning, 4 to 3, Barbour's walk followed by Kid Sullivan's double, yielding them the deciding run in the first half of the eleventh.

This game was transferred to Venice at the urgent request of many of the local fans. No less than eleven of these attended the game. Evidently, the fans here are better requesters than attenders.

DONT BLAME MAIER.

After yesterday's turn-out, or lack of it, President Maier couldn't well be criticized should he yank up his $50,000 park and move it to some inland town where there are no Bulgarian bathing suits or other counter attractions.

The fans here have persistently been demanding a mid-week game regularly during the season. They can read their answer to this in yesterday's empty grand stand. Sunday morning games will continue to be their only sustenance.

There are a lot of good sports down this way, but they neglect to rally 'round the turnstile.

It was an ideal day for walking, and no less than twenty-five athletes engaged in this mild but healthful form of exercise.

Timmerman alone walked eleven. He also exuded three wild pitches against the grandstand. Fortunately, Sullivan didn't turn Timmerman loose in the place until the sixth inning. Otherwise, Tim might have wrecked the four-bit section of the edifice.

His most unseasonal inning was the eighth, when he issued three walks and twice assaulted the grand stand with wild pitches. Despite this astounding generosity, the Tigers were unable to score more than one run. Tim picking off two on strikes and Sullivan shooping Carlisle away from the plate on an attempted double steal.

HANK TRIES HARD.

Everything considered, Timmerman is about the wildest human being seen in these parts since Drucms was sent back to Texas.

Hank Chaletto, who pitched the seven innings for the Tigers, was a good second, passing eight men. Hank plainly was displeased that Timmerman should walk off with the laurels in this manner. He felt confident that he could have made it eleven the same as Timmerman had been allowed to work one more inning.

At that Hank's average of passes per inning was almost as large as Tim's, and while out-passed, he cannot be said to have been over-shadowed by the Chicago man.

Roth, on the mound for the Sox in the first five innings, finished third, with four passes. Decanniere was hopelessly out-lanched, walking only two men.

There was an epidemic of crime among the Tigers, they stealing less than six bases. Kane was a regular Capt. Kidd, stealing both second and third. Billy Sullivan thanked him for not stealing first.

These things were not necessarily a reflection on Sullivan's ancient arm. Timmerman was so busy trying to get the ball within a radius of ten feet of the plate, that he had no time to devote to the men on bases, and they took leads that amounted to license.

FIRST SCORE.

The Goofs laid the bases on Chaletto as early as the second inning, but he wiggled through without a scratch. But the way things were going something was sure to give, and the Venice defense was cracked for a run in the third.

Ed Walsh, having read that to bat left-handed helps the batting eye, switched around. The results were pleasing to Chicago. Ed soaking out a double, Sheehan sacrificed, and the "Big Moose" scored on Schreiber's hit to right.

The Tigers retrieved this one in the fourth, Carlisle lined a triple over Halstein. Hogan ran out and commended Walt, also detaining him at third while Sheehan tossed out a double. Sheehan sacrificed, and the "Big Moose" scored on Schreiber's hit to right.

The Tigers retrieved this one in the fourth, Carlisle lined a triple over Halstein. Hogan ran out and commended Walt, also detaining him at third while Sheehan tossed out a double. Sheehan sacrificed, and the "Big Moose" scored on Schreiber's hit to right.

Barbour booted Kane's grounder in the fourth and this lapse paved the way to another Tiger tally. Hosp sacrificed, and Litchi scored Jawn with a single to left.

GOOFS AHEAD.

Sheehan's walk, Schreiber's sacrifice, a double by Blackburne and a sprinkling of singles by Barbour and Meyer yielded two Goof tallies in the fifth and left the Goofs one run in arrears.

At this point Decanniere and Timmerman took to their respective teams. Timmerman promptly began throwing the ball over the place. But he had a four-leaf clover in his shoe, and this saved him until the eighth, when Venice tied the score.

He passed Litchi in the eighth. He then went to the other extreme and fanned Agnew and Decanniere. A wild pitch by Litchi on second, and Low stole third. He scored on a wild pitch. Carlisle and Leard were passed, each stealing second with neatness and dispatch, and Walt going to third on Sullivan's overthrow of Blackburne.

Sullivan shot the ball down to Blackburne to annoy Leard at second. Timmerman promptly advanced to second and was run down on the line by the Sullivan party. Timmerman walked four men in the ninth, and two in the tenth, but he was unable to get a hit more remarkable, because the batting case in at least twenty-five feet back of the plate.

The Angels are getting ready for a two-game series with the State League team from Fresno Saturday and Sunday. Waldschmidt, the young corner in the heating line, will return to Venice with the State League, as Dillon is to let him get a little more experience and control before taking him in for keeps.

RITCHIE FOULED WOLGAST; CALLED A DRAW.

"WILD CAT," AD
CLAWS CHAMP.

Made Ritchie Look Like Dub
for Five Rounds.

Willie Dropped Him in the Seventh.

Wolgast Yells "Foul," Referee Disallows Claim.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 12.—Showing even more come-back ability against Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, than he did against Joe Rivers, Michigan's fighting wildcat, Ad Wolgast, rival, went to a draw in the seventh round.

OCCIDENTAL TO BAR FRESHMEN.

Babes Not Eligible for the Varsity Teams.

Neither Can They Meet Other Freshmen.

Tigers Well Prepared for Drastic Measure.

BY WILLIAM M. HENRY.

Freshmen will not be eligible to compete on Occidental's athletic teams next year.

Neither will freshmen be allowed to compete in intercollegiate contests with the first-year men of any other institution.

The rule goes into effect next fall.
At one fell swoop the faculty of Occidental College eliminated the freshman from athletics yesterday afternoon.

Not content with merely barring him from the varsity athletic teams, which Pomona announced that she would do four months ago, the Occidental faculty deprived him of the right of an annual freshman football game with Pomona or any other institution.

A GOOD MOVE.
This is the most drastic measure ever adopted in the history of Southern California intercollegiate athletics, but drastic as it is, will do more to put college athletics on a higher plane than a less drastic measure could possibly have done.

With the University of California.

Stanford and U.S.C. threatening to make the same move within the next few months, things look very black for the High School graduates.

No more will "junior jobs" and promises of membership in the exclusive fraternities and offers of trips up North and back East tempt the High School athlete to go to college for just one year. Nobody is able to go to college merely for the athletics if he has to wait a year before he is eligible to compete.

In this manner the objectionable freshman athlete will be eliminated from our midst.

In addition to cleaning up the college athletic situation, the new rule-ing will be a big boost to athletes in general for the man who doesn't wish to go to college and wait a year before entering active competition will compete for athletic clubs of one kind or another and thus bring more athletic organizations into competition.

TIGERS PREPARED.
As far as Occidental College itself is concerned, the effect will be hardly noticeable except in track, in which more seniors are engaged than in any other sport.

In football the entire Occidental championship team with the excep-

MANY TRACK EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY.

THE cinder paths of Southern California will be kept red hot Sat-day with a bunch of hopeful spikes pounding their way to victory or defeat. In nearly every city in the South a meet of more or less importance will take place.

Pasadena will have the big city section of the county high schools meet on field and from all indications this will be a great meet. Speed boys from Santa Monica, Whittier, Beverly, Anaheim and others are expected to break the record of 1m. 19 1/4 in the half-mile run.

Poly High and Hollywood High track teams clash at the latter's field also tomorrow. Hollywood is certain to win the meet by a big margin as the Mechanics have not shown anything startling on the track or field so far this season. They do fairly well in the dashes, but the field events and distance runs are hopeless.

Hollywood has a splendid team capable of piling up a big score against the Poly squad.

A small track meet of the small schools of the citrus belt will be held at Claremont Saturday. Chal-fney Union High has the strongest team.

CLIFF DWELLERS MEET ARTISANS.

RIVALS MINGLE ON CINDERS
TODAY.

Coch Goddard of L. A. High says that Art's squad this afternoon at the latter's field, shortly after 3 o'clock.

The Artisans have punctured big holes in the track aspirations of every track team in the south that has come to their path. Pomona, Pasadena, Santa Ana, and numerous other high schools have fallen victims to the victory-crowned Manual Arts crowd.

Now L.A.H.S. is going after their skins and if all goes in right they will have the same success as the older squads, which is no success at all.
Coch Goddard has a bunch of good men, but he lacks the well-balanced power of their rivals.

Dell and Jamison in the dashes are first-class men, with an even chance to beat out Reginald of Manual. The Hilltoppers claim a couple of horses of that lucid dark shade which figure to upset a lot of carefully-planned Artisan dope. One of these particular horses will appear in the 440 and Coach Frith of Manual Arts is saving Cronkrite to turn loose against this unknown phenom.

Another L. A. High man expected to show good is Douglas, in the weights. Goddard also claims a twenty-six-and-three-tenths-second man in the low hurdles, but he may not be able to compete on account of scholarship standards. Lanky Albert should win the high jump for the Hilltoppers, while Pierce figures strong in the pole vault.

The Artisans received a severe setback when Werner was put out of running by a protest from the High School. Werner formerly attended Los Angeles High, and they claim he is over the age limit of 21 years.

Werner denies the claim, but will not be allowed to compete unless more convincing evidence is presented.

Manual looms up strong in the distances, with Yerkes as a headliner.
Snead looks better than Thomson in the hurdles, while they are strong in the field events and relay. Manner is going good in the pole vault.

BENEFIT TONIGHT FOR EARL MOHAN.

Tonight a big benefit will be given at Jack Doyle's camp for Earl Mohan. Boxers of every division will journey out to Doyle's tonight.

Mohan is a big way physically and has a wife and baby to look after. This benefit is to send Mr.
Mohan to Denver with the baby and to secure proper medical attention for Mohan. Harry Burns will give a big bag punching exhibition, while twelve high-class three-round bouts will be held.

The show will start promptly at 8 o'clock with special car service after 7 o'clock.

FANCY DIVES

Shows in this picture are (reading from top to bottom) the swan dive, the "one-and-a-half" and the jack knife.

For the first time rounds Ritchie, the mighty, did not have a look-in with the boy to whom he owes his title. His punches lacked steam and his famous left jab was not connecting with any degree of regularity, while the Dutchman was going strong just as though he had a preliminary boy in front of him. He brought every bit of knowledge he had at his command into play, battering away at the champion's stomach and his kicks had plenty of power behind them.

It was not until the sixth round that Ritchie showed anything like championship ability. At this stage he began to take head of his seconds and "step around," putting in some telling hooks to the Dutchman's face.

AD YELLED "POUL."
In the seventh round, during a tea-to-toe scuffle in the center of the ring Ritchie swung a right to the stomach and Wolgast sank to one knee, crying foul. Referee Stout ruled otherwise, and Ad, after remaining in a crouching position for three counts, arose to fight as if nothing had happened. A big wall went up for the Michigan boy, but it did little good.
Stout remained firm in his ruling.

That punch, while it saved Ritchie's title as far as the popular decision was concerned, did not hurt Wolgast, as the later rounds proved. He was just as strong as ever in the eighth and kept rushing. However, one

Application Made for Race
Next Season.

F Vanderbilt and Grand Prix Run Together.

Courses Available From Leon Skettler.

BY AD G. WARDEN.

Leon T. Skettler, chairman of the racing committee of the Automobile Association, stated today that formal application had been made to the proper authorities for the 1915 Vanderbilt and International Grand Prix races.

The application of the Vandebilt Association for the 1915 races, has been acknowledged by the first committee, by the automobile association, which has the grant these two great events.

During the course of the application on the subject of racing Leon Skettler said, "With regard to splitting the Vanderbilt and Grand Prix races and holding them at the same time, the proper authorities will not consider this."

"In fact, last year I applied to Vanderbilt Cup race alone, and I did not want to split the races.
They told me at the time that they would not consider splitting of one of these two races."

"Our strongest competitor for races next year will be from England. I understand that the English and American are both in the contest."

"If we are as fortunate as these races last year, we will hold them on one of these courses, which we have a right to hold."

Checks were handed yesterday to the Western Automobile Association the amount of $1400 for the at prize money to the winners of Vanderbilt and Grand Prix races.

The money was divided into the winners in each of the races.
It was announced from racing quarters yesterday that $1400 of the total amount of the grand prix of both the Vanderbilt and Grand Prix races, according to the Western Automobile Association, was allowed 50 per cent. of the receipts, which, in addition to the try fee was to constitute the of the two races up to the of $20,000.

All money over that amount, according to the contract, remains the Santa Monica Bay Club Committee, for expenses of the races, with the exception of 10 per cent. of the gross, which will be paid to the Western Automobile Association, to cover the cost of advertising and expenses of the entrants.

Not more than $1,000 will be withheld after the Vanderbilt Grand Prix race, according to the official report given out by the man of the Racing Committee today.

"This may be surprising to the age spectator," said Skettler, "and it is, but it is perfectly proper and was a surprise to us and can be accounted for by the fact that the postponement of the races, which of some benefit to the grand prix, worked a great hardship on the general admission sale."

"However," he said, "we have received for the Vanderbilt race paid considerably more money than

BIG SWIMMING DUEL TONIGHT.

CALIFORNIA TO MEET L.A.A.C.
FADDERERS.

Chances of Local Boys Are Improving and They Have a Good Chance to Grab the Honors—Ernie Smith and Ray Henderson Should Provide Some Fine Competition.

Tonight the long-awaited California-L.A.A.C. swimming meet is to be held in the athletic club tank and if ever a like event promised as much excitement, it was so long ago that everybody has forgotten about it.

With only two or three of the events practically clinched and all of the others liable to be won by a touch, people with heart disease are warned to stay away.

The meeting of such stars as Ernie Smith and Ludy Langer from the north, and Bill O'Malley, Bob Howard and Vance Veith from the south alone should be well worth the price of admission, while the opportunity to observe Cliff Bowen, the midge-fat Coast diving champion, in the act of demonstrating his art, is an attraction in itself.

The local deposters had been rather pessimistic regarding their chances in the big meet, but the showing made by the local men in practice during the past few days has changed the outlook and now the clubmen are figured almost an even chance to win.

What the local men are hoping is that the outcome of the meet will depend upon the relay for they figure that they have one of the fastest quartetts that ever appeared in the south.
O'Malley, Howard, Ed Williams and Ray Henderson are all capable of clipping off the length of the tank in somewhere around sixteen seconds, and this should be good enough to win from the northerners.

The exhibition diving by the ladies and the 440 between Dolly Mings and Georgia Carman promises to be more than merely interesting. Dolly is still smarting from her defeat of Don Francisco last summer and she hopes to set up a new American record for the quarter in the race tonight.

ED WALSH IN BOX TOMORROW.

"Spitballer" Slated to Pitch
His First Game.

Bill Sullivan Can Have Job
on the Coast.

Brashear Joins Beavers at Santa Maria.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Ed Walsh will display his famous right arm in a pitching sense tomorrow afternoon for the first time this season.

Walsh is here with the Goofs, having by some inadvertence been placed in the wrong paw. Up to this time he has contented himself with playing left field for this remarkable aggregation of baseball athletes.

Walsh, who has been accustomed to playing main-attraction roles, is growing weary of life in the country, and now proposes to return to the spotlight as focused on the mound.

He decided yesterday that his ailing arm is about ripe for a test, and confided the fact to Billy Sullivan.

Sullivan intended to use him in yesterday's game but at the last moment decided that it would be a shame for him to waste his superior personality on a lot of vacant benches.

Sully then selected Saturday as the proper day for the "spitballer" to make his debut as a "comebacker," figuring that there would be more people present to enjoy the occasion.

There have been many conflicting reports regarding Walsh's condition. However, the big fellow has maintained stoutly all along that he felt confident of a return to the game in a winning sense.

It is hardly likely that he will try to go the entire route or extend himself in a manner to give his arm a relapse. But at the same time, he will be a test calculated to give him a line on the actual condition of his whip. He promises to make a free use of his "spitter."

When Walsh steps on the slab tomorrow, all Chicago will sit up and take notice in a telegraphic sense; not because anything particular hinges on the game, but because of a desire to learn something regarding the condition of Ed's pitching pulse.

Counters Want Sullivan.

Billy Sullivan will never have to go gunshooting around for a job as long as he has the Cubs out of the business at the old stand.

Rap Hogan and Walter McCredie both stand ready to provide Sullivan with food and shelter any time that he cares to go to work for them.

In fact, they have already asked him to come and play with them. Sullivan was asked last night if he would be willing to come to the Coast and either of them would be glad to have him.

"A man will do most anything if he gets money enough for it," replied Sullivan. "I have no objection to it. In fact, they have already asked him to come and play with them. Sullivan was asked last night if he would be willing to come to the Coast and either of them would be glad to have him."
